(pronounced - cha-ruh-teez | ˈtʃærɪtɪz)

A charity is an organisation created to raise money and awareness to help and support specific causes, diseases, or groups of people in need. A charity is typically a non-profit organisation, meaning that donated money is spent only on the charity's activities and principal objectives. Charitable organisations can range from helping the homeless to cancer awareness. In 2021, there are estimated to be over 1.3 million registered charities worldwide.

SUMMARY

- Non-profit organisations
- Raise money and awareness for specific causes
- Registered charities range from cancer awareness to homeless shelters

TAKE PRIDE

Acceptance and coming to terms with how a person chooses to identify or love, especially in accepting it themselves, is often challenging. Self-discovery is typically one of the most significant steps a person from the LGBTQIA+ community can take. The acceptance process can be complex and made worse when we can not associate, connect or identify with others similar to ourselves. Failing to find a positive representative can make a person feel disconnected, isolated and alone.

The pride in series is about educating and sharing information about various identities, sexualities and special groups. It is a platform that showcases and highlights the exceptional groups of individuals that make up the global community and hopefully helps people feel pride. Learning more about people similar to yourself not only helps debunk misinformation but can also help change perceptions and, ultimately, help people take pride in their community or communities, whatever they might be.

You should never feel or be told that being different is wrong. It does not matter if you are straight, gay, or any of the other no-traditional sexual or gender identities. You are you, especially when it is your identity and something you cannot change.

take pride in you
