The dwarf planet Ceres was initially classified as an asteroid, the only one orbiting entirely within Neptune's orbit.

The planet was named after the Roman Goddess of Agriculture, Ceres, who represents motherhood, family relationships, transitions in a woman's life and agriculture. Within astrology, it is associated with the star sign Taurus and is often considered the planet of the family. The planet is seen as having a feminine or female identities.

Though there is no direct LGBTQIA+ connection, it is associated with feminine gender identities.

Ultimately Ceres is about all things relating to the family, including motherhood and nurturing
