

DARMSTADIUM 04

GAYTHER COLOUR AND LEARN

Darmstadtium is a synthetic chemical element with the symbol Ds. The term is named after the city of Darmstadt in Germany, where the element was first created, and it has the atomic number 110. Darmstadtium is radioactive and currently is only used in scientific research.

DEMISEXUAL

A person who only feels an attraction where there is a deeply emotional or romantic connection. Any connections formed can be with a person from inside or outside of the gender spectrum, the same or opposite gender as their own. Whenever a demisexual person has not developed a romantic or emotional relationship, they will likely be considered more asexual.
