

FOOTBALL 07

GAYTHER COLOUR AND LEARN

Football is a team sport played with eleven players on each side, with the aim of scoring goals by kicking a ball into the opponent's net, with the exception of the goalkeeper or during throw ins, the players are only allowed to use their feet. Each match is played on a rectangular grass or turf field and the sport is known for its teamwork and strategic plays. Football, also known as soccer in some countries, is the world's most widely played and watched sport, with major tournaments like the FIFA World Cup bringing fans together worldwide. The modern form of association football began in England in the 19th century, where standardised rules were established by the Football Association in 1863.

INTERESTING FACT

Up until 2002, all FIFA World Cups were held in Europe or the Americas.
In 2002, South Korea and Japan jointly hosted the World Cup in Asia.

